COLOR SCHEME

Primary Colors:

Deep Green: Various pine trees and natural elements.

Earthy Brown: Used for deer, moose, and small accents (e.g., stylized trees).

Muted Blue-Grey: For mountains, giving them a calm and cool tone

Accent Colors:

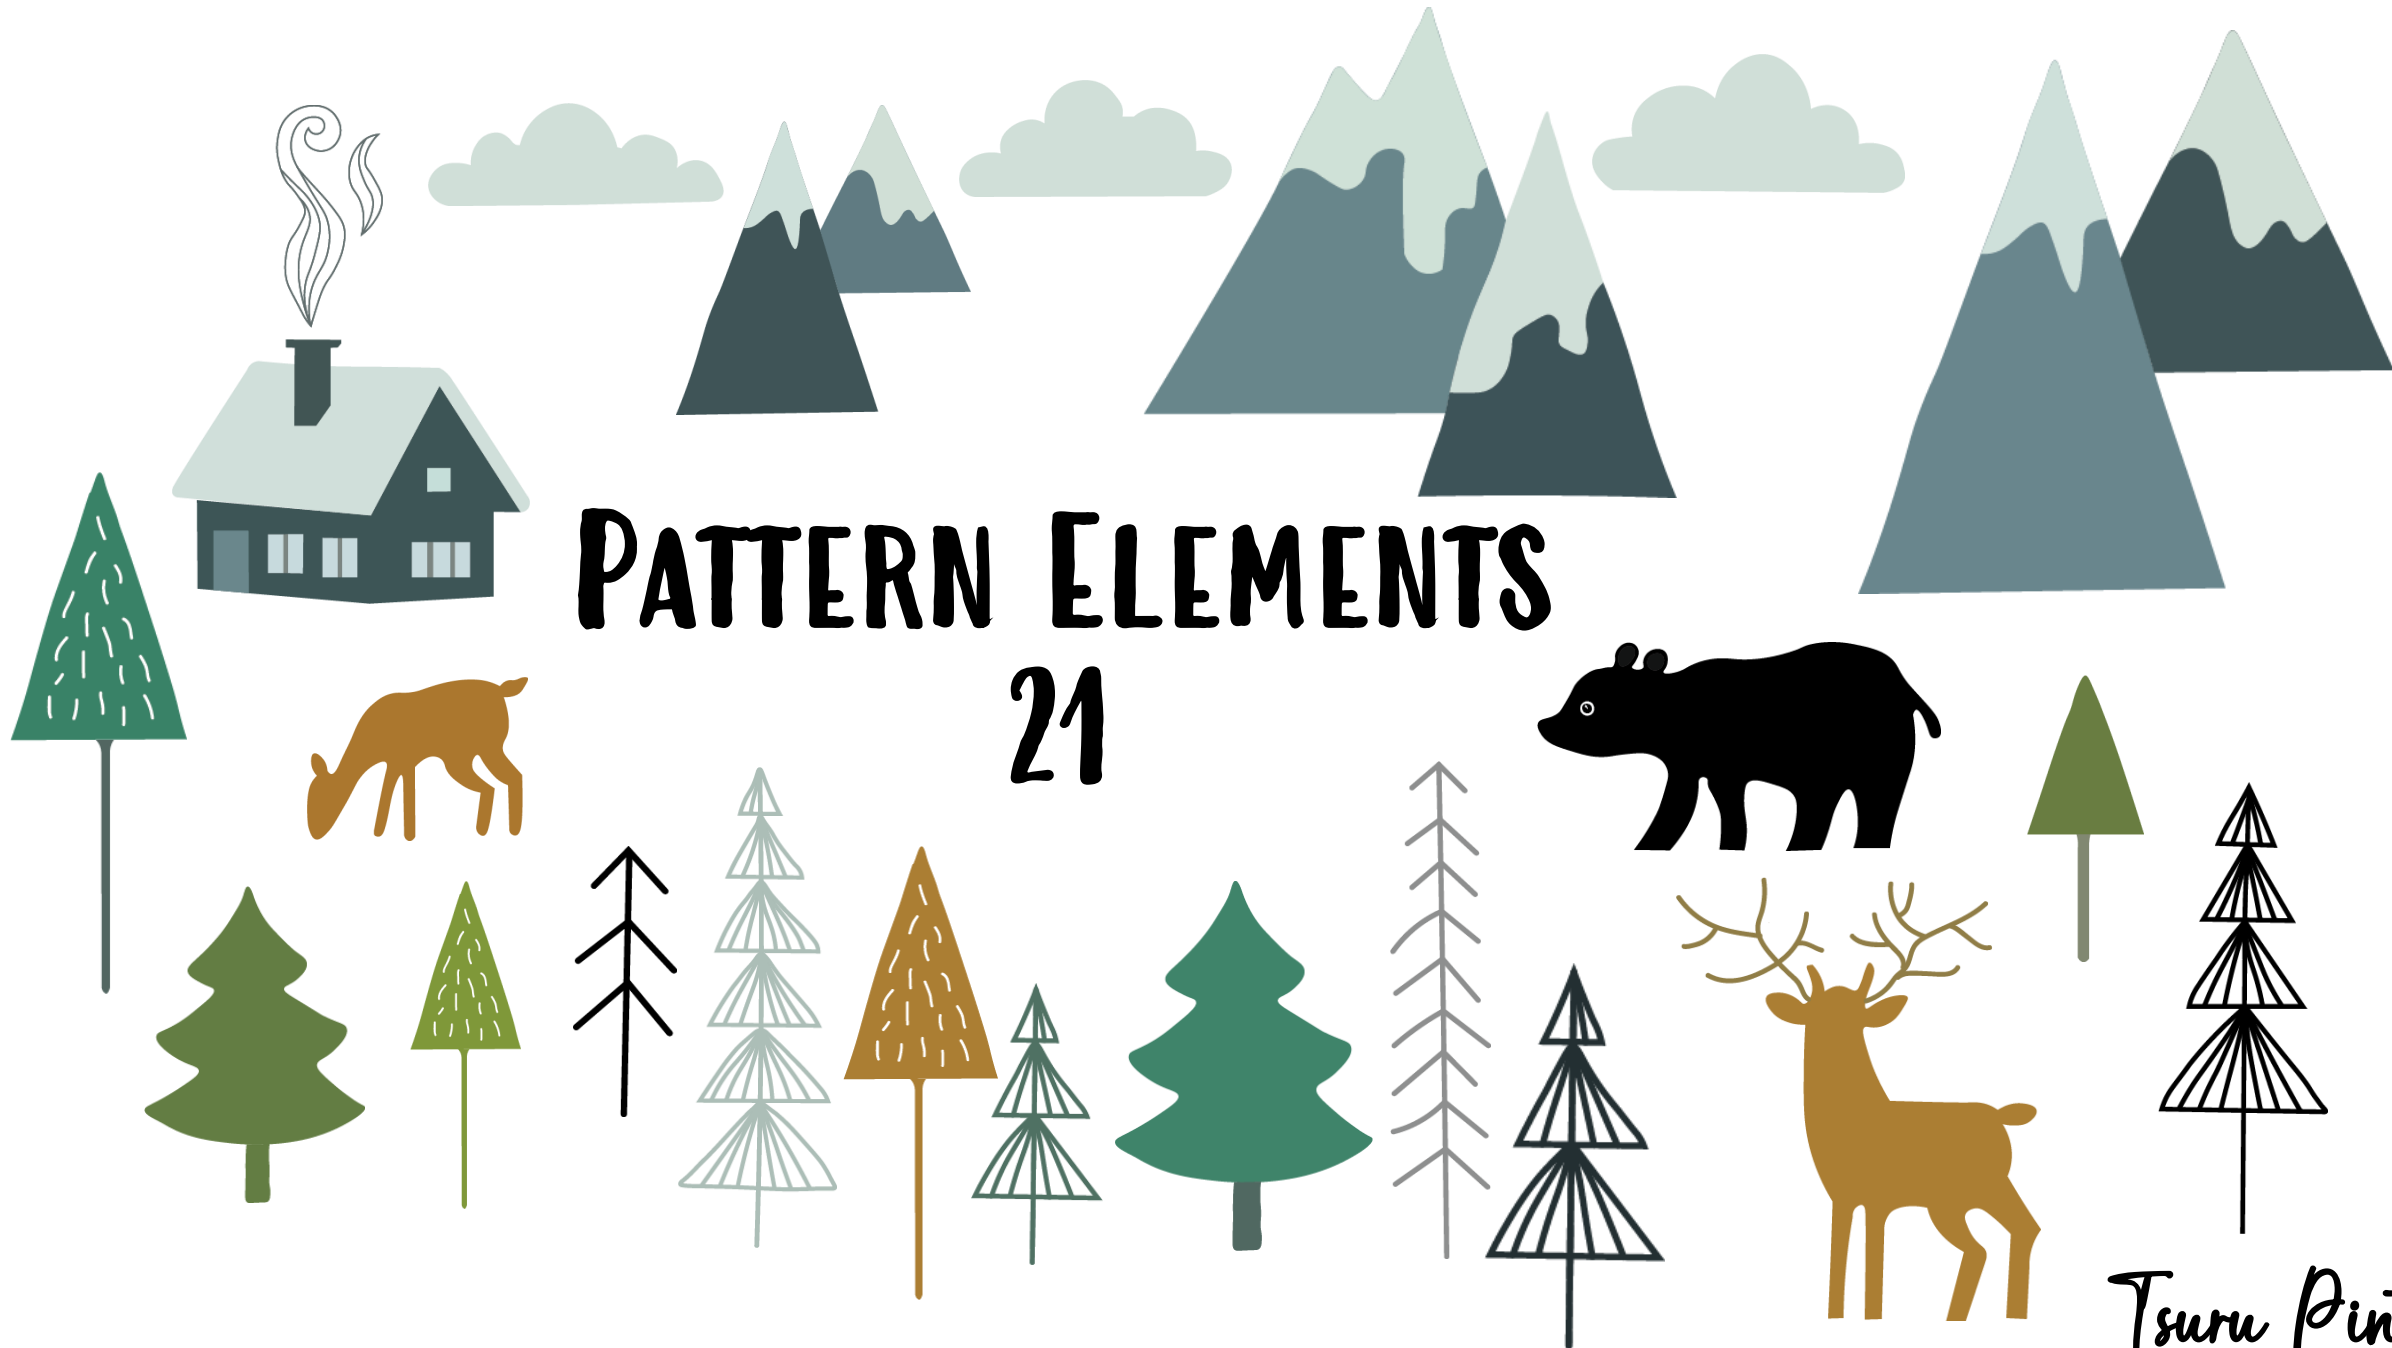

Black: For bears and simple line art trees.

Light Grey and White: Subtle clouds and smoke from cabins, softening the design.

Mustard Yellow: Small decorative trees adding warmth and contrast.

Background:

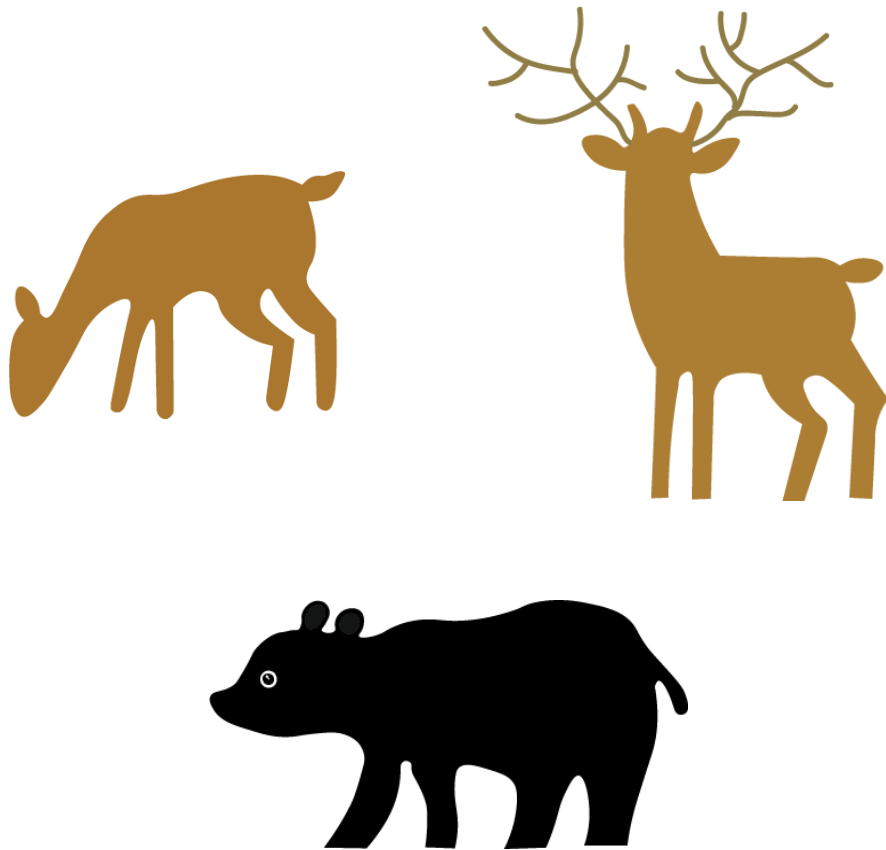

Clean, crisp white, allowing all elements to stand out clearly

PATTERN ELEMENTS

Animals:

Bears: Silhouetted in solid black, they appear calm and strong, adding a woodland feel.

Deer and Moose: Rendered in warm earthy brown, they contribute to the rustic charm and highlight the wildlife of a forested landscape. Their poses are natural and grounded.

PATTERN ELEMENTS

Trees :

Evergreens (Pine Trees):

Displayed in deep greens and stylized, adding to the natural forest vibe.

Geometric Trees: Some trees are in a simplistic triangular shape, with colors like mustard yellow and muted greens.

Line-Art Trees: Minimalistic black outlines of tall trees contrast nicely with the colored ones.

PATTERN ELEMENTS

Mountains, cloud & smoke:

The mountains are in various shades of blue-grey and muted teal, giving a calm and misty appearance.

Some mountains have snow-capped peaks, which add to the cozy wilderness theme.

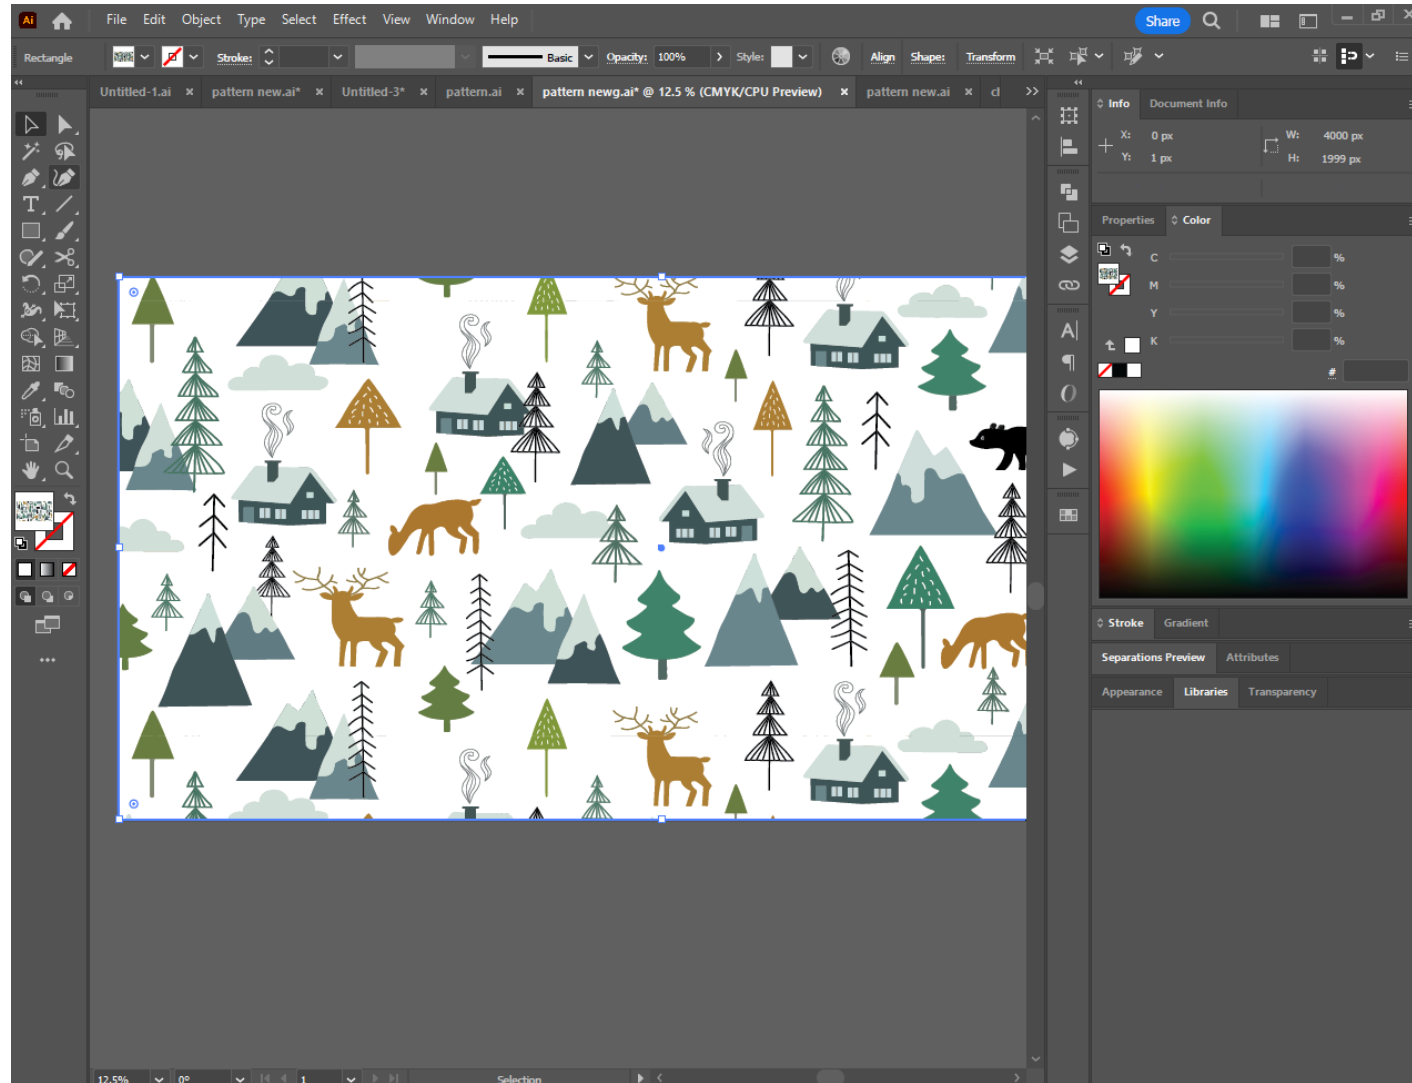

Their triangular geometry balances the composition.

Light grey and white clouds float gently in the background, softening the landscape.

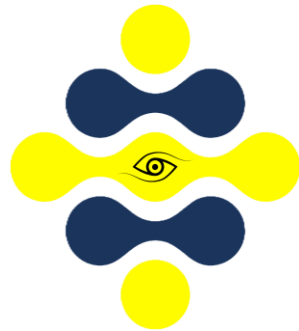

Smoke curls up from the chimneys, enhancing the feeling of warmth and calm.
